MISS GARY BOWMAN . . . Weds in San Pedro. Portrait by Seaman.

veil fell about her like shimmering mist, and the chantly lace edging formed a heart of frosted lace at the very end of the veil. Her head dress was a princess crown of seed pearls and rhinestones.

Reverend Melvin Andrews officiated at the ceremony which was held at the Trinity Lutheran church in San Pedro.

Attendants Mrs. Florence Slankard, the matron of honor, and Miss Barbara Lolley and Miss Sandra Lolley, the bridesmaids, set off the regal bride to perfection with their gowns in pastel shades.

Orlin Mayfield served as best man and the ushers were Charles Hansen and Ralph Adamson.

Judy Rae Holman was the flower girl and the ring bearer was Vernon Michael Slankard. The bride's mother wore a gown in shadowed pink. The reception was held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

The bride attended Narbonne high school and Long Beach secretarial college; and the groom attended San Leandro high school and the University of San Francisco.

Membership Still Open In New Torrance Art Group

The Torrance Art Group, the city's newest society devoted to cultural pursuits will hold its second meeting on Friday, February 10, at Higgins' Brickyard auditorium, 2217 West 174th st., at 8:30 p.m. to elect officers.

After holding one meeting, the group has attracted twelve members from the various Torrance areas. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Feldon of 815 Fonthill, who are responsible for the birth of the organization, have announced that anyone who is interested in any of the forms of creative art, is eligible to join the group.

Anyone who is interested in the group but who cannot attend the meeting may call her at FA. 8-2694, for further information.

Actual artistic experience is not necessary, anyone who would enjoy art discussion, attending exhibitions, providing critical opinions, and furthering the appreciation of art, as well as creating it, is welcome to become a member. Mrs. Feldon said.

Those members who have already done work will bring it to the meeting for group criticism and exchange of ideas.

A discussion of the purposes of the society is planned as well.
